

AQUEOUS by KATIE MCKINNON

Inspired by Australia's sand and surf along the coastline of Victoria's Bellarine and Mornington Peninsulas, The luxuriously soft and luminous Aqueous Collection brings a choice of coastal neutral tones and sea spray blue hues.

"Each design is reminiscent of mist from the effervescent surf, crashing waves and the ever-changing weather patterns. From the spectrum of sand shades along the shoreline, bleached driftwood, sandstone cliffs and storm clouds gathering above the bay to Christmas hydrangeas, endless Summer holidays, fresh linen and washed out denim." Katie McKinnon

JARJUMS (meaning “Kids”) by INDIGENOUS YOUTH

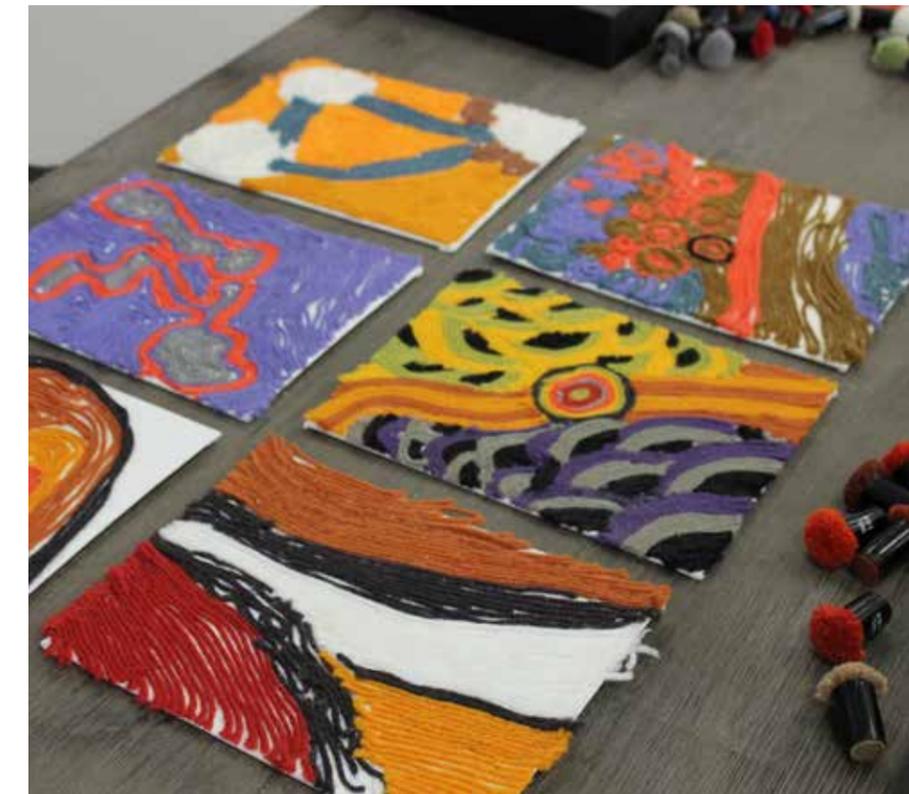

A unique Indigenous student Arts Engagement Program

“An artistic expression of cultural stories influenced by the knowledge of an Elder and their families, through the eyes Indigenous youth.”

Lead by respected Aboriginal artist Chris Edwards, Simon Robinson (Director of The Rug Collection) and Wirriimbi Designs hosted a hands-on cultural exchange craft workshop, which inspired the imagination and creativity of Aboriginal youth and their families, to convey their important cultural stories through the no written language of visual symbols/icons through artwork.

Six artworks were selected and hand tufted into the limited edition Jarjums (Kids) Collection by Indigenous Youth Collection.

WOVEN SIMPLICITY by SHAYNNA BLAZE

“Woven Simplicity is all about bold textures handcrafted by knots, plaits and weaves with soft, durable pure wool. I wanted to create a collection that is visually quite simple and organic, yet practical and divine underfoot.”
Shayna Blaze

The simplicity in each design, aims to create a sense of attention and focus in a room without overwhelming the space. Four subtle shades have been incorporated throughout the collection; cashmere, ink, pewter and chinchilla.

“Each rug becomes a platform upon which to build the style of your room, connecting other design features in the room,” says Shayna.
